

Friulparchet

Friulparchet is an Italian wood floor producer operating since 1927 with an assortment that ranges from pre-finished 2- or 3-layer boards to solid wood boards, traditional compositions, and laser designs to outdoor decks and flooring. All Friulparchet parquet are produced using the fine techniques of craftsmanship; in addition to all the oiled, varnish and wax finishes proposed, even personalized finishes and formats are available on request. The Company's product offer is in continuous evolution, with new products and finishes being added every year. The latest creations entitled Mosaico and Imperium come to mind.

What is your most popular product abroad?

One of our most successful products in foreign markets is our Listone Friulano, a pre-finished two-layer parquet also available in European Oak that can be stained easily in a wide range of colors and finished with oil or varnished. Listone Friulano comes in various formats and thicknesses and in two or three layers, and a virtually infinite number of traditional types of working can be applied, such as brushing or planing by hand, punch marks and sawn-effects. Special types of working can also be selected for the herringbone laying shown in the photo.
